

Competitive Start-up.d

- 1 Social entrepreneurship and its methods, borrowed from the world of
- 2 Social entrepreneurship solves problems in the
- 3is the motivation of the social entrepreneurship
- 4 Ais an organization, often one that is legally incorporated
- 5 Social entrepreneurship doesn't take place in a vacuum. It happens in a
- 6 For social entrepreneurs, it is important to Recognizing and stating
- 7 The nature of social entrepreneurship organizations requires that there be leaders and.....
- 8 As a social entrepreneur, you'll challenge the
- 9 A business that focuses on support for widows is an example of.....
- 10 In Social Entrepreneurship SI means
- 11 Publicas the Groundwork for Success of an social enterprise
- 12 The problem of social distance and a related phenomenon called the.....
- 13is a deep awareness of and feeling for another's suffering, combined with an active, engaged desire to alleviate it.
- 14 Compassion begins with a generous promise made from one party to another.
- 15 As a social entrepreneur, you must always pursue two interlocking goals. One of such goal is
- 16 As a social entrepreneur, you must always pursue two interlocking goals. Another of such goal is
- 17 The emergence of attachment theory is credited to a controversial American psychologist named

- 18) By we mean the things people in communities do and feel and think — the ways of living that are socially shared, transmitted, and learned by members of communities.
- 19) simply means teaching or conveying to others what is socially expected.
- 20) in social entrepreneurship is definitely out-of-the-box thinking.
- 21) is the selfless pursuit of the well-being and interests of others.
- 22) is common but not a universal motive in the world of entrepreneurship.
- 23) Altruism in the natural world has been a difficult topic in
- 24) All consists of a mix of humane caring and sharing of oneself and one's resources with others exclusively for their benefit.
- 25) rests on a deep sensitivity to certain needs and wants of a target of benefits.
- 26) Two main forms of altruism are
- 27) is the ideal form of altruism, which is only rarely achieved in human beings.
- 28) might be the most famous example of someone displaying pure altruism.
- 29) gains a degree of personal satisfaction through the altruistic act.
- 30) The gains these benefits while helping the target of benefits experience some satisfaction of their own.
- 31) means performing a civic duty, responsibility, or obligation by working toward amelioration of a community concern.
- 32) The motivational platform of community engagement is built from one or more of the following three planks, except
- 33) Compassion means "to suffer with," and sympathy means
- 34) has a central place in achieving social change.

- 35) As a social entrepreneur, it behoves you to master the world-changing power of language, so that your communication is
- 36) Before you can communicate effectively with others about changing the world, you need to figure out how to communicate effectively with.....
- 37) To make communication in your enterprise flow more easily, everyone needs to follow a few basic rules. This includes all except
- 38)in small groups tends to arise where there is a need for an information hub or coordinator of communications.
- 39) A common feature of hierarchies is that....., whether formal or informal, is documented.
- 40) Which of this is a barrier to communication?
- 41)is a prevailing tendency
- 42) Identifying Major Trends Facing the World Today can be achieve through.....
- 43) An example of how science and technology has changed the world is
- 44) Throughout human history, people have been living in larger and more dynamically dense settlements — a process called
- 45) Globalizing science, urbanization, and population growth are gigantic forces shaping our.....
- 46) Acronym for ICCA is
- 47) CSR is an acronym for
- 48) SIA is short form representation for
- 49) Bywe mean the systematic study of the natural world through experimental observation.
- 50) By....., we mean the practical application of scientific knowledge to understanding our environment and developing and producing artifacts.
- 51) Some points to keep in mind when considering a name for your enterprise includes all, except
- 52) Creating an Online Presence specifically refers to a

- 53 On your website....., you present a short, crisp introduction to the site that encourages visitors to click at least a few of the other pages.
- 54 You have three options for pursuing external commercial support for a social enterprise. They include all except
- 55may be slick pamphlets with multiple pages or a single (usually folded) page printed on both sides.
- 56 should have, at minimum, your enterprise's name, street address, telephone number, e-mail address, and Web address.
- 57 That brand needs to make yourclear to the people you're trying to serve
- 58 You control your image as a social entrepreneur largely through.....
- 59 The vision is where a social entrepreneur intends to be in a future period
- 60 Connection online for social entrepreneur and entrepreneurship is called
- 61 When it comes to recruitment of paid staff, your goal, quite simply, is to find the
- 62 When you're recruiting new paid staff, your first step is to identify andthe tasks of the job.
- 63the want ad, or job notice, wherever you think it might attract qualified candidates.
- 64 When seeking right candidate, you might want to ask them to indicate the following except
- 65 After you have some applications trickling — or flooding — in, you need to review.....
- 66 Develop a contract that sets out the following except
- 67 The contents of the contract should be discussed during the
- 68 The five fundamental areas of management that are especially germane to social enterprises are all of the following, except
- 69is the process of deciding in detail how to do something before you actually start to do it.

- 70) involves Identifying and assigning workable tasks for members of your enterprise to carry out
- 71)for social enterprises out of different motives than paid staff
- 72) What's fundamental about entrepreneurs is that they embody and exhibit an entrepreneurial.....
- 73) You can be mostly a social entrepreneur whose work is primarily non-profit, while at the same time find ways to that can sustain your efforts
- 74)see challenges differently from most folks
- 75)are also simultaneously creative and pragmatic.
- 76) Examples of an entrepreneur is all except
- 77)is the bedrock of entrepreneurship
- 78) An alternative to creative is
- 79)are leaders whose personal qualities include a certain magnetism that allows them to light the way for others.
- 80)is a form of hot cognition, or passionate thought, as are its social origins
- 81) Social entrepreneurship and its methods, borrowed from the world of
- 82) Social entrepreneurship solves problems in the
- 83)is the motivation of the social entrepreneurship
- 84) Ais an organization, often one that is legally incorporated
- 85) Social entrepreneurship doesn't take place in a vacuum. It happens in a
- 86) For social entrepreneurs, it is important to Recognizing and stating
- 87) The nature of social entrepreneurship organizations requires that there be leaders and.....
- 88) As a social entrepreneur, you'll challenge the

- 89) A business that focuses on support for widows is an example of.....
- 90) In Social Entrepreneurship SI means
- 91) Publicas the Groundwork for Success of an social enterprise
- 92) The problem of social distance and a related phenomenon called the.....
- 93)is a deep awareness of and feeling for another's suffering, combined with an active, engaged desire to alleviate it.
- 94) Compassion begins with a generous promise made from one party to another.
- 95) As a social entrepreneur, you must always pursue two interlocking goals. One of such goal is
- 96) As a social entrepreneur, you must always pursue two interlocking goals. Another of such goal is
- 97) The emergence of attachment theory is credited to a controversial American psychologist named
- 98) By we mean the things people in communities do and feel and think — the ways of living that are socially shared, transmitted, and learned by members of communities.
- 99)simply means teaching or conveying to others what is socially expected.
- 100)in social entrepreneurship is definitely out-of-the-box thinking.
- 101)is the selfless pursuit of the well-being and interests of others.
- 102)is common but not a universal motive in the world of entrepreneurship.
- 103) Altruism in the natural world has been a difficult topic in
- 104) Allconsists of a mix of humane caring and sharing of oneself and one's resources with others exclusively for their benefit.
- 105)rests on a deep sensitivity to certain needs and wants of a target of benefits.

- 106 Two main forms of altruism are
- 107is the ideal form of altruism, which is only rarely achieved in human beings.
- 108 might be the most famous example of someone displaying pure altruism.
- 109 gains a degree of personal satisfaction through the altruistic act.
- 110 The gains these benefits while helping the target of benefits experience some satisfaction of their own.
- 111means performing a civic duty, responsibility, or obligation by working toward amelioration of a community concern.
- 112 The motivational platform of community engagement is built from one or more of the following three planks, except
- 113 Compassion means “to suffer with,” and sympathy means
- 114 has a central place in achieving social change.
- 115 As a social entrepreneur, it behoves you to master the world-changing power of language, so that your communication is
- 116 Before you can communicate effectively with others about changing the world, you need to figure out how to communicate effectively with.....
- 117 To make communication in your enterprise flow more easily, everyone needs to follow a few basic rules. This includes all except
- 118in small groups tends to arise where there is a need for an information hub or coordinator of communications.
- 119 A common feature of hierarchies is that....., whether formal or informal, is documented.
- 120 Which of this is a barrier to communication?
- 121is a prevailing tendency
- 122 Identifying Major Trends Facing the World Today can be achieve through.....
- 123 An example of how science and technology has changed the world is

- 124 Throughout human history, people have been living in larger and more dynamically dense settlements — a process called
- 125 Globalizing science, urbanization, and population growth are gigantic forces shaping our.....
- 126 Acronym for ICCA is
- 127 CSR is an acronym for
- 128 SIA is short form representation for
- 129 Bywe mean the systematic study of the natural world through experimental observation.
- 130 By....., we mean the practical application of scientific knowledge to understanding our environment and developing and producing artifacts.
- 131 Some points to keep in mind when considering a name for your enterprise includes all, except
- 132 Creating an Online Presence specifically refers to a
- 133 On your website....., you present a short, crisp introduction to the site that encourages visitors to click at least a few of the other pages.
- 134 You have three options for pursuing external commercial support for a social enterprise. They include all except
- 135may be slick pamphlets with multiple pages or a single (usually folded) page printed on both sides.
- 136 should have, at minimum, your enterprise's name, street address, telephone number, e-mail address, and Web address.
- 137 That brand needs to make yourclear to the people you're trying to serve
- 138 You control your image as a social entrepreneur largely through.....
- 139 The vision is where a social entrepreneur intends to be in a future period
- 140 Connection online for social entrepreneur and entrepreneurship is called

- 141) When it comes to recruitment of paid staff, your goal, quite simply, is to find the
- 142) When you're recruiting new paid staff, your first step is to identify andthe tasks of the job.
- 143)the want ad, or job notice, wherever you think it might attract qualified candidates.
- 144) When seeking right candidate, you might want to ask them to indicate the following except
- 145) After you have some applications trickling — or flooding — in, you need to review.....
- 146) Develop a contract that sets out the following except
- 147) The contents of the contract should be discussed during the
- 148) The five fundamental areas of management that are especially germane to social enterprises are all of the following, except
- 149)is the process of deciding in detail how to do something before you actually start to do it.
- 150) involves Identifying and assigning workable tasks for members of your enterprise to carry out
- 151)for social enterprises out of different motives than paid staff
- 152) What's fundamental about entrepreneurs is that they embody and exhibit an entrepreneurial.....
- 153) You can be mostly a social entrepreneur whose work is primarily non-profit, while at the same time find ways to that can sustain your efforts
- 154)see challenges differently from most folks
- 155)are also simultaneously creative and pragmatic.
- 156) Examples of an entrepreneur is all except
- 157)is the bedrock of entrepreneurship
- 158) An alternative to creative is

- 159)are leaders whose personal qualities include a certain magnetism that allows them to light the way for others.
- 160)is a form of hot cognition, or passionate thought, as are its social origins

