

International Economic Security.d

- 1 One of the common themes resulting from research into the common attributes such as initiative, perseverance and a positive outlook shared by successful entrepreneurs is that:
- 2 Effective entrepreneurs set challenging yet attainable goals that are:
- 3 Successful entrepreneurs are _____ people; they want to start producing results immediately.
- 4 Entrepreneurs:
- 5 John Warrillow developed attitudinal profiles for three types of entrepreneurs. Which of the following entrepreneurial types prefer to identify themselves by their area of expertise first, and secondly as business owners?
- 6 According to Vesper, who identified 8 entrepreneurial types, these entrepreneurs go on to build larger companies through hiring and delegation of authority:
- 7 What business skill is an essential ingredient to entrepreneurial success?
- 8 What is the role of a business mentor for entrepreneurs?
- 9 Your credit rating is based on:
- 10 Social entrepreneurship seeks:
- 11 The world's economy has become both more "integrated" and more _____ due to globalization.
- 12 All over the world policymakers have been racing to make their markets more _____
- 13 Traditionally, _____ was used to raise revenue to pay for public services and administration.
- 14 _____ has emerged as a primary global rule-setting agency a role enhanced by its dispute adjudication process in globalization.
- 15 Globalization has been associated with a massive _____ in foreign capital flows

- 16) FDI has become an increasingly important source of investment for developing countries. But it is more _____ than domestic investment.
- 17) The 21st century may come to be regarded as the decade of social policy_____.
- 18) Countries and firms face penalties in terms of market access unless they _____ with certain labour or environmental standards.
- 19) Natural disasters play a huge role in _____ economic security around the world.
- 20) Economic policy and institutional and regulatory changes have made capital mobility_____.
- 21) _____ comes in many forms, which is why economists refer to “money income” as contrasted with “full income” or “social income”.
- 22) the additional enterprise benefits that workers receive are also called_____.
- 23) Transfers or valuable services provided by local authorities, or formal or informal associations, including charitable organizations and NGOs are known as _____.
- 24) It is inappropriate to assess _____ and income security simply on the basis of earned money incomes.
- 25) Income security is _____ by high levels of income inequality, and inequality is part of economic insecurity.
- 26) Global inequality is reflected in the _____ between nations.
- 27) There have been degrees of _____, from the substitution of administrative tasks in the public sector by private providers to a full replacement of public pensions by private provision.
- 28) The _____ of a universal health care system is probably the main source of insecurity in developing countries.
- 29) _____ is the least covered of the standard forms of contingency risk
- 30) _____ benefits have been one of the main pillars of the social insurance systems of industrialized countries.
- 31) Throughout the world, the main form of _____ still consists of inter-personal transfers
- 32) The poor everywhere have _____ access to social services than the more affluent.

- 33) The _____ of income is clearly an aspect of income security.
- 34) Old-age income _____ is the dream of people everywhere; aspiring to it is part of the human condition.
- 35) In both developing and industrialized countries, there are wide earnings _____ based on worker status.
- 36) Pluto's view was that, in the interest of fairness, the _____ paid should never receive more than five times the lowest paid.
- 37) Labour _____ depends on cooperation as well as individual effort.
- 38) _____ security is regarded as better if the workplace provides benefits and entitlements that give security against contingencies and that improve workers' living standards.
- 39) The purpose of national _____ index is to measures for those actually earning income from work.
- 40) An economically equitable firm is surely one in which _____ in earnings and benefits between its members are no more than is required to ensure dynamic efficiency.
- 41) _____ reproduction security is considered as a situation where there is a wide range of opportunities for training, apprenticeship and education to acquire and refine knowledge and competencies.
- 42) Basic _____ is first of all about the capacity to survive functionally, the capacity to understand, to create and take opportunity
- 43) The _____ of education is a global trend.
- 44) Conventionally, the main indicator of _____ and skill is level of schooling attained.
- 45) A _____ workplace is one where there is an environment of skills security, where there are opportunities to learn and apply competencies, and to maintain them
- 46) It is often presumed that schooling and education lead to a life of _____ levels of other forms of insecurity. In many respects, this may be true.
- 47) More schooling is associated with higher incomes and _____ income security.
- 48) Employers tend to _____ to recruit men rather than women in a wide range of production jobs, while almost everywhere women are preferred in clerical jobs.

- 49) For social _____, non-discriminatory labour practices are essential in identifying a good firm.
- 50) Just as advertisements generate dissatisfaction by creating desires and needs that people did not know they had, so incentives commonly _____ dissatisfaction, frustration and a sense of personal failing.
- 51) Representation security is about having _____. This is an instrumental need, in that having Voice is the optimal way of advancing and defending an interest.
- 52) Voice is essential at _____ levels of social policy, from design to implementation to monitoring and evaluation.
- 53) In a large group, one person's individual contribution would not make much difference and the outcome would be _____
- 54) In the period of _____ many governments have favored bargaining decentralization.
- 55) Types of unions are based on functions, purpose and membership _____.
- 56) People usually do not unite due to _____ of the benefits of joining..
- 57) Increasingly, decision-making is more distant and _____ transparent while elites appear to control the character of this political democracy and its outcomes.
- 58) Probably the greatest challenge to _____ work-related security in the era of globalization is finding the most appropriate form of voice.
- 59) Whether fairly or not, _____ are perceived to represent the interests and aspirations of wage workers in mass production and mass services.
- 60) Workers in the _____ economy need to engage in alliances with formal workers and their trade unions.
- 61) A decent workplace provides _____ security for workers while fostering the dynamic efficiency of their enterprises.
- 62) The standard outcome indicator of collective _____ security is the unionization rate.
- 63) It is evident that _____ and related developments have created more economic insecurity.
- 64) Globally, within numerous countries, over the past two decades _____ has increased.

- 65) As far as efficiency is concerned, one could imagine that if all incomes were equal, or if overall differentials were very small, economies would stagnate and motivation would be _____.
- 66) Inequality can be acceptable if it is coupled with a strong needs-based distribution system or the provision of a _____ income.
- 67) Globalization has raised _____
- 68) For industrialized affluent countries a widespread support for the principle that everybody in society should be provided with a minimum income sufficient to cover their _____ needs.
- 69) When posed as the charity principle, many people believe government policies should _____ the poor.
- 70) Everywhere in the world, care work takes up more time than any other form of work, a disproportionately large part being done by _____.
- 71) Globalization is producing the prospect of pervasive income _____ everywhere.
- 72) Policies should focus on principles of social and distributive _____.
- 73) Micro-credit has been seen as a means of reducing the income _____ of the poor.
- 74) The use of _____ policy as social and regulation policy has been enormously strengthened by the spread of so-called earned income tax credits.
- 75) Freedom and restructuring grants is one of the worst forms of inequality, and thus source of income insecurity, is the _____ distribution of wealth in the form of ownership of assets and property rights.
- 76) Cash transfers are generally the least costly and most rapid way of helping people in times of _____.
- 77) "The continued ability of a country to pursue its internal life without serious interference." Is termed as:
- 78) The assurance of the uninterrupted supply of energy at an affordable price, while respecting environmental concerns."
- 79) _____ energy doesn't only reduces global warming but also lessen tensions between countries because of increased competition for diminishing natural resources
- 80) Power generation by fossil fuels expels significant amounts of _____ into the atmosphere

