- 9 Consider the case: In city X there were two big companies: A and B. Both companies produced woolen hats. The owners of these companies were both very creative people. The owner of the company A managed to save his company from bankruptcy during the COVID crisis. The situation was frightening and terrifying and he almost decided to give up. Nevertheless, he managed to pull himself and people around him together by creating an innovative organizational structure and developing original rules of inner execution. The owner of the company B achieved success by creating a new technology of an effective wool cutting and a new (and very attractive!) design for a hat. He got inspiration for this design from hours of observation of the headwear of the children with whom his children used to play in winter. Which of the reasons for the importance of creativity influenced the life and success of these Entrepreneurs?
